Tea for me
In my plastic big green.
It's plastic I know
But it isn't for show.
As I work through the night
It's there in plain sight
As a comfortable sip
That makes time a nice trip.
So tea for me
In my plastic big green.

Coffee for me
The aromatic bean.
A stimulant, I know
And it isn't for show.
As I work in the light,
It helps keep me bright.
It's a sip of beauty
Colours rich and sooty.
So coffee for me
At the end of my dream.

Paul (tea) and Leslie (coffee).
